

Cllr Jodie Woodward

Send me an email

I am married with three young children and I would like to make Swillington a happier and safer place for them to grow up in.

Local government is important because it gives local people who live in the community and who use the amenities the chance to influence projects, activities and assist in using the budget to make Swillington a nicer place to live.